*The Live the Dream Foundation of Silicon Valley
Proudly presents the
EPA Juneteenth Multi-Cultural Festival
Saturday, June 18, 2011
Bell St. Park, East Palo Alto, CA*

Friends, Supporters and Fellow Constituents;

The Live the Dream Foundation is honored to be the host for the First EPA Juneteenth Multi-Cultural Festival; we're interested in having your organization's support and or participation in the First EPA Juneteenth Multi-Cultural Festival.

This year's event will promote "Unifying of Our Community". In as much as the City of East Palo Alto is a city where there is an abundant of ethnic cultures it is only fitting this year's EPA Juneteenth Multi-Cultural Festival represent the diversity of the City of East Palo Alto.

The celebration of Juneteenth represents the state of Texas, being the last bastion of slavery, acknowledging the Emancipation Proclamation (of Jan. 1 1863) on June 19, 1865 it henceforth began Civil Rights Era for all Humankind.

The freeing of the slaves lead to the Civil Rights Act of 1866 which eventually led to Congress to passing the Civil Rights Act of 1964 which was the landmark piece of legislation which outlawed all major forms of discrimination against blacks and women, including racial segregation and its duty to guarantee all citizens equal protection of the laws under the Fourteenth Amendment.

This year's unique festival will host a program of cultural activities which will be highlighted by exhibitors of cultural entertainment, ethnic culinary foods, social activities and nonprofit organizations providing resources to their respective communities.

We are actively seeking Sponsors, Donations, Volunteers, Food and Commercial Vendors, Entertainers and Performers and Nonprofit Organizations for involvement in this truly very unique Multi-Cultural Festival.

Please find attached a number of forms indicating ways you may become involved and show your support of this first of a kind event. For further information please do not hesitate to contact me.

Respectfully,

Lavell F. Pennington, Jr.
